K. K. K. STORE BRANCHING OUT

REMOVAL OF WALK-OVER SHOE STORE MAKES ROOM FOR LARGER STOCK IN THE OLD
FELLOWS BUILDING

Work of remodeling the former location of the Walk-Over Shoe Store in the I. O. O. F. building is nearing completion, and today employees of the K. K. K. Store commenced the work of moving their stock of clothing and furnishings to the new department.

When the Walk-Over store was moved, the room, adjoining the K.
K. K. store, was secured by the latter concern, and the store is being enlarged. In the new room, clothing, furnishings and a line of men's Walk-Over shoes will be carried, and the old room will be used exclusively for the clothing department.

BRYAN CERTAIN TO BE IN CABINET

WISDOM DEMOCRATS OF NEBRASKA
BELIEVE THAT COMMONER
WILL HELP WILSON HANDLE
THE BUSINESS OF GOVERN-MENT

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 7.—Wise Democrats of Nebraska think William Jennings Bryan will be in the cabinet of Woodrow Wilson, probably as secretary of state, but that regardless of the portfolio he will be in the cabinet. The declaration is made with such frankness and positiveness that the outsider is left with little room for doubt. Whence comes the assurance of those who make the statement is not quite clear, but the prediction is made with such evident sincerity as to indicate inside information.

Quite suddenly sentiment has wholly changed, and the men who are closest to Bryan are the most outspoken in the belief that he will be the premier of the cabinet.

The Anti-Bryan Democrats contend it will be good politics to have him tied up in the cabinet, where he cannot do any harm in an unofficial way. Wilson, they declare, will be president in fact, and Bryan must obey. If he shows a disposition to kick over the traces the other members will outnumber him and render him helpless.

GERM LADEN DUST CAUSES CATARRH

ELY'S CREAM BALM KILLS THE DEADLY CATARRH GERMS—NO STOMACH DOING

Catarrh, which is bad enough in itself, often results in loss of taste, smell and hearing, and leads to serious throat and lung troubles if not promptly checked. The seat of catarrh is usually in the back of the nose, and its natural course is downward, into the throat, and thence to the lungs.

Don't take any chances. If you have any symptoms of catarrh—stuffed up feeling in the head, nasty discharge from the nose, sore throat or dry, hacking cough, get a fifty cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and begin treatment at once.
This remedy is not a "burning out" or "drying up" process. It is simply a cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm, taken through the nostrils into the head and throat, where it instantly reaches the seat of the trouble. That's the only way to effectually and permanently cure catarrh.

Catarrh makes you offensive to yourself and friends. Start using Ely's Cream Balm today, and in a short time you will be permanently cured of this nasty, disgusting disease.—Adv.

Mix'Ing-Up

By Joe Bush

Did you ever stop to think what a newspaper reporter in a city of the size of Klamath Falls must contend with? Never thought of the nice things he does for some of you, but always remember when he gets your initials wrong in the social columns, don't you?

Let's read between the lines.
Here's an item that appears in the paper in some form or another every day:

"John Blank, the well known rancher residing near So-and-so, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and, after transacting business, returned home this morning."

Now, here is the way the reporter might have told the story of Mr.
Blank's visit here:

"John Blank, who owns a rock pasture near So-and-so came to town yesterday morning for the express purpose of getting drunk. He had accomplished his purpose after he had been here less than an hour, and then proceeded to make himself obnoxious. Through the influence of a local merchant, Blank was kept out of jail, and started on his way homeward."

"I would not have interfered," said the merchant, "only Blank owes me a lot of money and I was afraid that if he went to jail there would never be a chance for me to get even."

Orlie McManigal has been returned to Los Angeles and now there is strong talk of pardoning him.

Mrs. Owens Thankful
Mrs. Nellie F. Owens, who was one of the nurses employed to care for the Barfoot family during the recent illness of its members with scarlet fever, is loud in her praises of the co-operation of the police and the help of citizens.
"Everyone was very nice," said Mrs. Owens, "and I am very thankful to them."

William Chastain, a well known resident of Bonanza, is a Klamath Falls visitor.

DON'T KICK

If you can't boast, please keep quiet. If you don't like the country, please go quietly away, and it may be that, before you reach the end of the journey you will find the land of your dreams. Perhaps, somewhere in this good old world of ours there is a favored spot, where it is never too hot nor too cold, too wet nor too dry and the wind never blows, but it has not been located yet. It may be that you are overlooking something good right here at home. I might be able to show you how to make a small investment and get the right kind of a start. Anyway, I'd like to meet you
